

Team Covenant

As a member of the team for Chrysalis # ____/Young Adult Chrysalis # ____, I hereby covenant:

- To surrender my "self" to the power of Christ at work in me; to live my life as one with Christ, and
- To so order my life that the love of Christ will be visible to the other team members and the participants
- To follow the example of Christ and adopt a leadership of servanthood and humility
- To pray daily for the members of the team, the community and the participants named and unnamed
- To be willing to listen and learn from my peers and from Christ
- To attend every team meeting except in emergency situations
- To set aside the proper amount of time to prepare for my assignments and the possibilities
- To be ever mindful that this event is not for me, but for the participants, and that my role is to serve and my position is no more important than any other

In addition, by agreeing to work Chrysalis # ____/Young Adult Chrysalis # ____, I promise to follow the house rules at the retreat site and those of the Pathway East Chrysalis Board of Directors stated below.

1. I will not enter the Conference Room or Chapel while they are occupied by caterpillars at any time during the weekend unless specifically instructed to by the head of the area in which I am working. At NO time will I enter the Conference Room when a talk is in progress.
2. I will go to sleep when instructed to by the weekend Board Representative and/or the Lay Directors. This implies that I will not stay up after "Lights Out" to hang out, write Agape Letters etc. (scheduled Team Meetings and Heart Burning Service excluded).

I understand that if I break any house rules or any of those listed above, I will be subject to discipline by the Pathway East Chrysalis Board of Directors. My punishment will be one or both of the following:

1. Dismissal from the team for the remainder of the weekend without refund of team fees.
2. Restrictions on working future teams.
